RULES

- * An open check must be given at the time of entry. Checks for classes should be made out to Harmon Field.
- * BRHJA rules & regulations will apply for all riders.
- * Leadline & Walk Alone riders may not cross enter for points into any other divisions.
- * Walk Alone is for riders not ready to trot.
- * Walk/Trot is for riders not ready to canter, these riders may only show in this division and the Walk/Trot Crossrail division. No cross entering into any other division for points. Entering other divisions for experience, unjudged, is encouraged.
- * W/T/C riders can only show in this division & the W/T/C Crossrail division.
- * Walk/Trot Crossrail riders may not cross enter for points into W/T/C Crossrail and vice versa.
- * Crossrail rider may not cross enter for points into any division other than the W/T or W/T/C divisions that correspond with their Crossrail division.
- * Pre-Short Stirrup is for riders who have not yet competed in Short Stirrup. You may not cross enter for points into the Beginner Hunter or Crossrail divisions.
- * Beginner Hunter divisions are for green horses and beginner riders.
- * 17 & Under Eq. riders may ride in the Beginner Hunter 17 & Under divisions. 17 & Under Eq. will be treated as a separate division and point awarded accordingly.
- * Pre-Green is for green horses. You may not cross enter into the Mini Hunter for points.
- * No cross entering for points into any divisions after Crossrails, unless otherwise specified.
- * You may show in all divisions unjudged for extra experience.
- * Jumper Classes will be done in a Table II,2b format & will compete over hunter style fences. These classes will be timed & judged as a Jumper class; the fastest clean ride wins. Jumper riders may enter into the Hunter division at the same height.
- * Professionals may enter any division unjudged.
- ** NEW ** → We will now judge & ribbon professionals in Pre-Green, Mini Hunter and Limit Hunter. Professionals will be judged separately from amateurs.
